

Spectrum Multicultural Choir is singing at the Darebin Police Community event
Saturday 25 October 2008.

Come to the Preston Police Station, 55 Roseberry Ave (off High Street), Preston from 10am to 3pm. A day of fun activities for the family!

Spectrum Multicultural Choir will be singing around midday.

Other activities include:

- É Tours of the police station
- É Fingerprinting
- É Fun children's activities, including little copper's uniforms, & remote control car racing
- É Entertainment & Food
- É Sports personalities
- É Bike safety & engraving

And world music with Spectrum Multicultural Choir!

Spectrum Multicultural Choir has been established by Spectrum Migrant Resource Centre's Aged Services Division.

The Choir brings together ageing migrants to share their passion for music, their desire to form new friendships and their interest in learning about new cultures and languages.

Participants of the Choir come from various migrant backgrounds, such as Assyrian/Chaldean, Chinese, and Macedonian.

Media Contact: Cristina Marras 0429 707 547

www.spectrumvic.org.au