

Spectrum Education & Training

Level 1, 1100 Pascoe Vale Road
Broadmeadows VIC 3047
Tel. (03) 93301 7400

set@spectrumvic.org.au

www.spectrum.org.au

CHC30108 Certificate III in Aged Care Work & CHC30308 Certificate III in Home and Community Care

Course Overview

The dual qualification of Certificate III in Aged Care Work - CHC30108 & Certificate III in Home and Community Care - CHC30308 is based on the National Community Services and Health competency standards in line with industry standards. The course will assist you to gain the necessary basic skills required to work within the community care industry.

Summary of units

- Orientation to Aged Care Work
- Orientation to Disability Work
- Support older people to maintain their independence
- Work effectively with older people
- Work effectively with people with disability
- Work effectively in home and community care
- Work effectively with carers
- Provide support to people living with dementia
- Work effectively in the community sector
- Provide support to meet personal care needs
- Participate in the implementation of individualised plans
- Support individual health and emotional well being
- Follow safety procedures for direct care work
- Deliver care services using a palliative care approach
- Recognise healthy body systems in a health care context
- Work effectively with culturally diverse clients & co-workers

Summary of units (continued)

- Assist with self medication
- Apply first aid

Career Options

This course will assist you to gain employment as a support worker in residential facilities as well as working with clients in their homes and other community settings to assist with the activities of daily living.

How the course is run

The course is usually run 4 days per week for 2 months and will include 150 hours of practical work placement.

You will get practical knowledge and skills to include in your resume.

Some courses will incur student tuition fees and charges.

SET is a provider of Commonwealth and State funded training. Call us to check your eligibility for Government funded places.

www.spectrumvic.org.au

